

read a book in all 50 categories

by Mac Barnett	re-read a book 	while wearing a silly hat	while it's snowing 	over the phone/ Zoom	about colors 	about a real person (biography)	about bears 	title begins with the letter C	about a grand-parent of poetry J 811*	illustrated by Maria Frazee	 about the stars	by Beatrix Potter	about the alphabet 	a story without words	has three words in the title	about numbers or counting	about a faraway place	about a dog
by Judith Byron Schachner	about something that hops 	by Jan Brett	 about dance	illustrated by Ashley Bryan	 about something warm	about dragons 	by an author whose name starts with D	 about self-confidence	by Ryan T Higgins
about winter 	a story in rhyme	 in a blanket fort	about a food	 with a mouse in it	by Leo Lionni	about a train 	about friendship 	 about a farm	 about Maine
about a song 	by Jon Scieszka	a fairy tale J 398.2* 	by Doreen Cronin	 about the weather	about something warm	 something in the sea	about an artist 	by Eric Carle	 about owls

Mark off each box as you read in a category!
Ask a librarian if you need help finding a book.

*This number refers to the Dewey Decimal call number libraries place on the spine of the book.
The numbers help keep books organized by subject.

Read a book in all 50 categories
between now and March 20th and earn a small prize!

You can find books (and place holds) by looking them up in the Minerva Catalog.

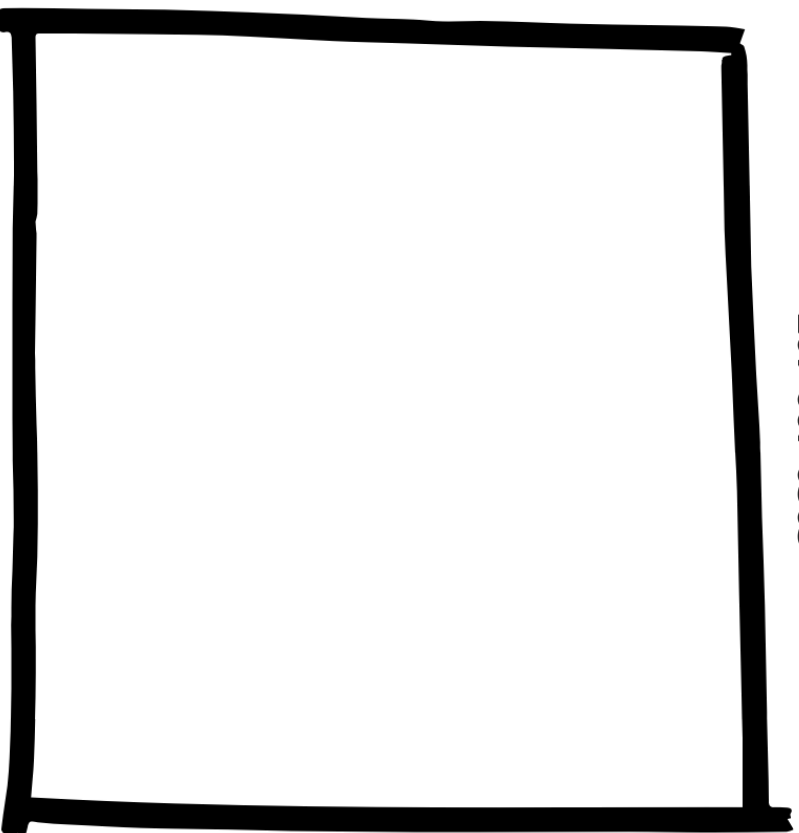

Many titles are available on our new digital service, Hoopla.

We offer curbside pickup.

If you need help, we are happy to assist!

info@ellsworthlibrary.net

207-667-6363

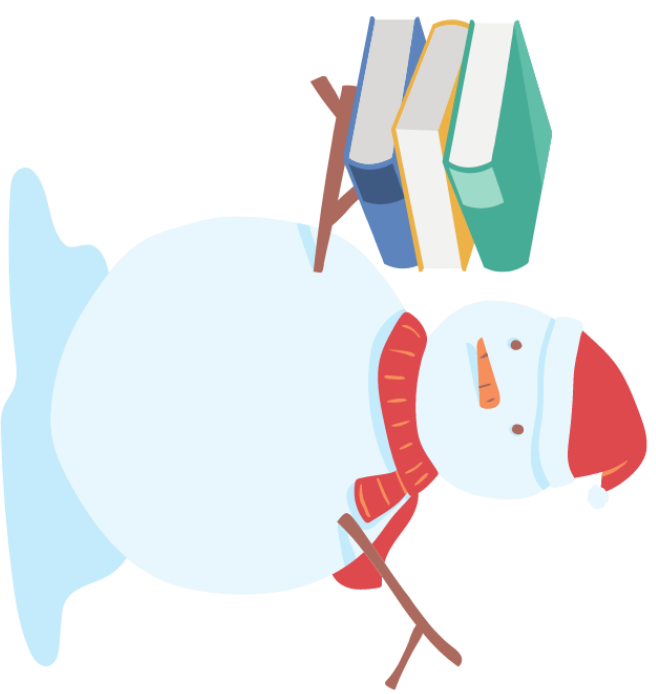

Draw something from your favorite book!

Ellsworth Public Library

The Winter Reading Challenge

2021

Name _____